1940s Military and Civilian Vehicle Parade Entry Rules

Rules of Entry

- All vehicles must display a unique registration number on their windscreen – this will be issued on the day and must be displayed throughout the parade and under no circumstances be removed.
- Filling or emptying of fuel tanks within the area is strictly prohibited at any time
- All vehicles should be positioned within the boundaries of the display so that any protrusions, doors, tail lifts etc do not infringe public access
- Vehicles must be appropriately taxed and drivers be insured to drive the vehicle.
- Applicants must ensure all drivers hold, and are not disqualified from holding, a licence to drive the class of vehicle being displayed in the procession.
- Road vehicles must be fully licensed and tested in accordance with the regulations for that type of vehicle.
- Parade will start at 7pm
- No exhibit may be left running unattended. All unattended vehicles must be securely braked and/or chocked and engines switched off.
- No vehicles may run on trade plates.
- All vehicles are accepted into the show on condition that the authorities and the show organisers cannot be held responsible for exhibitors/negligence involving damage or injury to vehicles or persons. Similar for loss or theft of vehicles, contents and equipment.
- It is the responsibility of the exhibitors to ensure that all vehicles being driven have a minimum third party insurance cover. Road traffic act rules apply on site.
- No dangerous dogs allowed on site. Pets are the direct responsibility of their handlers and must be kept on a leash at all times, and any deposit to be cleared up.
- Whilst every effort is made to ensure a successful show the organisers accept no responsibility for weather, show attendances and reserve the right to close down the procession at any time should circumstances beyond our control necessitate such actions.
- Exhibitors must pay full regard to marshal's instructions and conduct themselves in a manner that will not inconvenience or endanger other persons at any time.
- Applicants wishing to display a military vehicle with any form of weapon must include a copy of the deactivation certificate with this application form for consideration of approval.
- All entrants assemble on Station Rd Car Park at 6.30pm and must then return to Station Road Car Park at end of parade
- Drink driving laws apply and police will take action against offenders.
