Casa Vinicola Botter, Venezia

Casa Vinicola Botter s.p.a. began in 1928, founded by Carlo Botter. Today it is managed by the family's third generation, and it is a market leader for the sale and export of Veneto and Italian wines. The Company portfolio includes wines produced in Piedmont, Tuscany, Latium, the Marches, and in particular in Apulia. Currently the company works with producers in Apulia, Molise, Abruzzo, and in Sicily, surveying the entire production process.

Botter exports 98% of production to more than 40 countries. Next to the main European markets (Eastern Europe included) the company has customers (either importers and distribution chains) in USA, Canada, and Asia, including the Scandinavian and the Canadian monopolies (with special private labels projects).

The export management is coordinated by Carlo's grandchildren, and his two sons Arnaldo and Enzo manage the company, which now has more than 90 employees and a 2010 turnover of 80 million euros.

Prosecco di Valdobbiadene Spumante, Botter

The Prosecco de Valdobbiadene DOC Spumante is an exquisite experience characterised by its persistent effervescence. The colour is a straw shade of yellow reflecting spring rays of sunshine while the flavour is harmoniously balanced with delicate fruity notes, a low acidity and a moderate alcohol content. Prosecco should be consumed while still young to fully appreciate the sparkle (perlage), fragrance and flavour. (2) 11%vol.

Knightor Winery, Trethurgy, Cornwall

Knightor Winery and Restaurant is located at Trethurgy, just outside St Austell, Cornwall. Unique in Cornwall in concept, and relatively new to England on the whole, Knightor takes a New World approach found in countries such as Australia and New Zealand by combining a winery with a restaurant. Their premium wines are made using grapes grown on Knightor's own vineyards at Portscatho and Seaton, as well as grapes from other selected English growers. At the moment we list both the Knightor Brut and Madeleine Angevine (please see Sparkling Wine and England for these listings).

Knightor Brut, Knightor Winery, Cornwall

Pale straw with hints of green. Delicate, slightly floral nose with citrus and apple like notes. There are slight yeast autolysis characters reminiscent of baked bread, though it offers primarily youthful, fruit forward aromas. The palate is very well balanced, with a vibrant, quite vigorous bead of fine bubbles. There are nice, restrained fruit flavours and it has lovely crisp acidity giving way to a clean refreshing finish. An approachable yet elegant sparkling wine. (1) 12%vol.
