

Rhône

Rhône is a versatile and highly productive region producing some serious wine rivals to the great names of Bordeaux and Burgundy, but also some fabulous everyday drinking wines which have benefitted from good vintages in recent years. Our selection provides comprehensive choice whether you are looking for easy drinking French for your list or something a little more prestigious.

| | 5703650 | Condrieu, E. Guigal | | 2 | 2011 | |
| Three great words: Condrieu (the place) - Viognier (the grape) - Guigal (the producer) - show why the pulses race. Here is an elegantly-matured classic to match its reputation. 13.5%vol | | | | | | |

Colombo & Fille, Cornas

Winemaker Laure Colombo is not yet 30 years old but is already a rising star of the Rhône Valley! Where does the fire and passion within her come from? When you meet Laure's parents you understand that it is a typical trait of the Colombo family. Cornas, in the Northern Rhône Valley is where she grew up. The vineyard was her playground, so it was perhaps natural that she too would become a winemaker and would later join the family domain.

Made in limited quantities and crafted with food in mind, the boutique Colombo & Fille wines have an approachable style and feminine elegance. Alongside the enormously enjoyable, fruit packed Côtes du Rhône Rouge, we are now also delighted to offer the Côtes du Rhône Blanc. With an intense floral aroma and fresh citrus character, this wine will be a perfect accompaniment to many seafood dishes. The Saint Joseph and newly listed Châteauneuf-du-Pape both offer a classic option if you are looking for a fuller bodied, rich and food friendly offering.

Côtes du Rhône Blanc, Colombo & Fille

A blend predominantly of Clairette with some Roussanne and Bourboulenc. Hand-harvested fruit preserves the intense floral aromas and crisp, fresh citrus characters. Lively and vibrant, an absolute joy. (1) 13%vol.
